DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by

DeLorme et al. (6,321,158 B1).

DeLorme et al. discloses an electric navigational aid device comprising a processor and a memory adapted to communicate with the processor wherein the device is adapted to be transported on a road and wherein the processor and the memory are adapted to cooperate to provide an address that is proximate to the device (Column 4 lines 47-65); wherein the processor and the memory are adapted to cooperate to estimate addresses proximate to the navigation device by adapted to cooperate to estimate the current position of the navigational device, estimate the road segment length proximate to an address range associated with the current position of the navigational device and estimate a distance along the road segment length of the current position of the navigation device (Column 4 lines 47-56); wherein the processor and memory are adapted to extract road data from a database (Column 2 lines 50-58); wherein the
